

The Inquisitive Mind of a Child challenge.

The challenge

The challenge here is to read and explore the meaning and emotions within the poem, 'The Inquisitive Mind of a Child'.

Having answered the questions which you have been given, perform the poem either on your own or with a partner. Think carefully about how the child and the mum would communicate with each other. Try to express the feelings and emotions of the poem as you perform it.

You may wish to record your performance or perform in front of an audience.

Your Name

Your Class
