

Poppyscotland Volunteer Awards

About the awards

Volunteers are the lifeblood of Poppyscotland. Their support collecting for the Scottish Poppy Appeal means we can make a life-changing difference to our Armed Forces community.

Poppyscotland Volunteer Awards are one way of thanking volunteers for all of their support.

Corporate organisations, schools and other groups that show regular support for Poppyscotland over a number of years may also be presented with a Certificate of Appreciation.

Privacy

At Poppyscotland we take your privacy seriously and we will only use the information you have provided on this form to send out Volunteer Awards to those who you have nominated.

Please ensure that you gain consent from each volunteer before you pass on their details to us. Please ensure that you tick to confirm you have sought consent from each volunteer. Without explicit consent, we will not be able to complete the process and those nominated may not receive their awards.

We will use the details you provide to send out the awards to each volunteer. We will not share this data and promise to keep this personal information safe and secure.

For more information about how Poppyscotland processes personal information and about your rights under data protection law please see our Privacy Policy:

President's Award

By third party nomination only, in recognition of exceptional volunteering services to Poppyscotland. Please complete the details and tick the President's Award box on this form. You will then be sent a separate nomination form to complete.

Honours nominations

Where appropriate, Poppyscotland instigates and supports nominations of its volunteers for honours. Please contact the Volunteer Development Officer to discuss any nominations.

How to request awards

The awards proposer, who is normally a Scottish Poppy Appeal Area Organiser, should complete the details of the individual(s) or group being nominated for an award on the form overleaf. This should be returned by the 25 July. Awards are processed annually and will be sent out in September, directly to volunteers.

Please only apply for one award per person at a time. Volunteers will not automatically receive a badge when they reach their next milestone, a new nomination for each badge should be made. Area Organisers can nominate themselves for long service awards, however, the President's Award and Honours requests are only available by third party nomination.
